The minutes of the above meeting that was held on 24th Of April was read.

NHS Wales – Mental Health Services

A package was received from the Mental Health Project Group whom is a group of representatives from the health board that have been working together over the past two years to consider the challenges and opportunities in meeting the mental health needs of our population. Workshops are being held across Carmarthenshire, Pembrokeshire and Ceredigion and a local public workshop will be held on the 1st of August in Llwynceilyn Memorial hall from 1.30pm-4.30pm. A questionnaire was distributed for the members to complete.

Any Other Business:

Cllr Carys Morgan (Chair) thanked the Councillors, the County Councillor Marc Davies and friends for the successful evening of litter picking in Oakford, Neuadd Lwyd, Llwynceilyn and Ffos-y-ffin lately and also for the lovely bar meals that were enjoyed at Gilfach yr Halen afterwards.

Councillor Wyn Evans said that he had received numerous complaints about the new recycling bags that Ceredigion County Council have introduced, that they are of poor quality and rip easily, the clerk was asked to write to the County Council.

Councillor Ruby Williams mentioned that the seat by Llwynceilyn Filling Station was in a dangerous condition with planks missing, it was decided to order a new one.

Due to personal interest Councillor Carys Morgan left the room while the next issue was discussed.

With reference to an email that was received regarding an application for a financial assistance to Oakford's 'Cold Calling Controlled Zone' it was decided not to make a comment.

The meeting finished at 8.40.

The next meeting will be on the 12th of September.
