Also present:

The Clerk.

Apologies:

Councillors Eiddwen Merritt, Jocelyn Andrew and Barry Owen.

Disclosure of personal and prejudicial interests:

None.

Confirmation of last month's meeting:

It was resolved to approve the minutes of the monthly meeting held in October and they were signed as being correct by the Chairman.

Matters arising from the meeting:

None.

Planning matters:

None.

Sustainable Drainage Systems (SUDS):

Information was received by the Welsh Government mentioning the amendment proposed to the above Order regarding Sustainable Drainage systems (SuDS), at present the fines that can be passed for an offence is a maximum of £20,000. In order to provide consistency with other offences of a similar nature it is proposed that the limit of £20,000 be amended to simply 'a fine'. When the Amendment Order has been made they will send further information.

Older People's Commissioner Newsletter:

A newsletter was received to be distributed to the committee members.

Any Other Business which requires urgent attention:

The clerk was asked to make enquiries because the lamp post outside Gorwel, Ffos-y-ffin hadn't been connected since it was put in place back in February.

The meeting finished at 8.05.

The next meeting will be on the 10th of December.
